Mansoor Bin M.H Al Arayedh

Late Mansoor Al-Arayedh, born about 1890. Owns a good deal of land in Bahrain and is also a pearl merchant also known as the "King of Bahraini Pearls".

The Al Arayedh family is largest and best-known Bahraini family in Bahrain. Mansoor has a great deal of influence among the Bahrainis, which he usually wields with wisdom and sense. He was instrumental in settling the dispute in the summer of 1954 between the reformists and the Government, during which the police opened fire on a crowd threatening the fort, killing and wounding several people. For this he was awarded the MBE (Member of the British Empire)"Information from Leading personalities records for 1955".

Tracing the Company's foundation and rich aspirations back to the late 19th Century; Mansoor Al Arayedh's vision, family ideals and wealthy traditions were reinforced through the lifestyle he led and with the birth of his children in the first half of the 20th Century.

Mr. Mohamed Mansoor Al Arayedh is a Bahraini entrepreneur and investor, known for leading FARMA W.L.L and MBM Holding, a diversified group active in real estate, gold trading, oil & gas, hospitality, and agriculture. He holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA), combining academic insight with deep-rooted business experience.

Mr. Al Arayedh continues the legacy of his great grandfather, the late Mansoor Al Arayedh, one of Bahrain's most prominent pearl merchants and landowners. In 1929, Mansoor pioneered large-scale land development and was the first to launch affordable housing projects in Bahrain.

He was also a visionary in agriculture. He introduced modern irrigation systems, developed large farms cultivating vegetables and fruits from imported seeds, and established Bahrain's first fresh milk processing plant. He led major livestock and poultry initiatives, significantly advancing the local food supply and creating employment for Bahrainis.

Through FARMA W.L.L, Mr. Al Arayedh is building on this legacy by leading modern poultry and egg production projects that support food security and sustainable farming in the Kingdom, honoring the past while shaping the future.
